

Speakers At The Center

The Township of Livingston is pleased to announce a new speaker series for Senior Adults at the Senior/Community Center, 204 Hillside Avenue.

All programs are free and include light refreshments.

Call 973-535-7925 for more information.

JOHN T. CUNNINGHAM

Friday, October 27, 2006, 1:00PM

Co-sponsored by the Livingston Rotary

“Photo by Dorer: American Photographer and New Jersey Chronicler”

As a young reporter, notable journalist and author, Dr. Cunningham worked first hand with Harry C. Dorer at the Newark News. The pair traveled across the state, chronicling life in New Jersey on film and in text. Now Dr. Cunningham, who the New Jersey Historical Commission has called “New Jersey’s Popular Historian,” will share with you his unique insight into the world of this New Jersey icon.

ARLEEN WINSTON GOLDMAN

Wednesday, December 6, 2006, 7:30PM

“What Do I Do Now? Women’s Financial Survival Kit”

Author of the book, toolkit, and CD, “What Do I Do Now? Women’s Financial Survival Kit,” Ms. Goldman will present pertinent information for women faced with the issues of managing financial affairs alone. She will be joined by her husband and co-author, Marvin Sanford Goldman, a financial consultant and president and CEO of the Goldman Group, Inc.

DR. JULIAN ORLEANS

Friday, January 26, 2007, 1:00PM

“Touring by Bicycle”

At age 55, pediatrician Dr. Orleans discovered a new sport and joined a local bike club. Now, 25 years later, he has become a consummate biker traveling to 18 countries and 20 states. Specializing in “loaded bike” trips complete with tent, camera equipment and all the gear for sleeping and cooking under the stars, Dr. Orleans will present stories from the road and his personal adventures.

JEFF BUKANTZ

Friday, February 23, 2007, 1:00PM

“How to be a Champion Without Always Winning”

As Captain of the U.S. Olympic Fencing Team, Mr. Bukantz led the underdog 2004 American fencers to their first gold medal in over 100 years. Join him for an entertaining afternoon as he describes his journey to greatness and the ups and downs encountered along the way.

LES DAVIDSON

Wednesday, March 23, 2007, 1:00PM

“The Origin of the Cosmos”

Since retiring from his career as a physicist, Mr. Davidson has studied extensively in the areas of astronomy, cosmology and astrophysics. This interesting and educational presentation will delve into the far reaches of our universe to explore the building blocks of our world.

SUE SACHS

Friday, April 27, 2007, 1:00PM

“Garden Inspirations in Silver”

A resident artist at Riker Hill Art Park since 1982, Ms. Sachs has been involved in metal-working and jewelry making for the past 35 years. Share an afternoon of garden enchantment as she shares with you the inspiration behind her art and how she has developed into the successful artist she is today.

All programs are sponsored by the Township of Livingston Departments of Health, Welfare & Human Services and Recreation & Parks, and the Ruth L. Rockwood Memorial Library.

Call 973-535-7925 for information.